

CHORUS

With the technology from Piano and Ice Fly but with the support for skaters who are developing their skills. The thinner sole lowers the center of gravity increasing stability. The shell is designed to support and they combine to give improved control. Develop your technique and skate the edges. Memory foam holds the foot without pressure, the soft collar increases movement range and the ergonomic shape works with you. Like all top Edea skates this can be instant custom fitted in store. Performance with maximum comfort. Materials and design combine to hit the right notes more quickly. Your feet will feel at home on the ice, so you don't miss even a training session.
